Heidi Crebo-Rediker joins Campbell Lutyens' Advisory Board

London (6 March 2018) – Campbell Lutyens, the leading global alternative asset advisor, is pleased to announce that Heidi Crebo-Rediker has joined its Global Advisory Board.

Ms. Crebo-Rediker, an American citizen, brings a wealth of experience in both government and the private sector. She is the Chief Executive Officer of International Capital Strategies, as well as an Adjunct Senior Fellow at the Council on Foreign Relations. Previously, Ms. Crebo-Rediker served as the State Department's first Chief Economist, an Assistant Secretary level position, where she provided advice and analysis to the Secretary on a wide range of foreign policy issues having a significant economic, market or financial component. Prior to this, she was the Chief of International Finance and Economics for the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, following nearly two decades in Europe as a senior investment banker, working in both developed and emerging markets.

Based in Washington, D.C., Ms. Crebo-Rediker joins Campbell Lutyens as the firm continues its rapid expansion in the US. With a global team of 125 and a presence in North America for more than 15 years, Campbell Lutyens' US-based team has grown to over 30 advising on both primary fund placement and secondary transactions across private equity, infrastructure and private debt. Heidi's appointment follows those of Dr. Teh Kok Peng, former President of GIC Special Investments and Wayne Kozun, a former Senior Vice President of the Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan, reflecting the firm's global reach.

"We recognise the need to continually bring new perspectives to our business. Ms. Crebo-Rediker's experience advising at the highest levels of US government as well as her understanding of emerging markets and the infrastructure sector will be incredibly valuable as we continue to focus on expansion and consolidation in the US," said Gordon Bajnai, Chairman of the Global Advisory Board.

Ms. Crebo-Rediker was named one of the "Top 25 Women in Business" by The Wall Street Journal Europe. She holds degrees from Dartmouth College and the London School of Economics.

About Campbell Lutyens

Founded in 1988, Campbell Lutyens is an independent alternative asset advisory firm focused on fund placement and secondary transactions. Its fund placement practice advises and raises capital globally for private equity, infrastructure and debt managers. Its secondary transaction practice advises institutional and other investors on the sale or restructuring of portfolios of funds or direct investments within the private equity and infrastructure classes. It also advises managers on GP-led liquidity and fund restructuring transactions. The firm has a team of more than 125 operating from offices in London, New York and Hong Kong.

Campbell Lutyens has been consistently recognised as one of the leading fund placement and secondaries advisors globally. Last year, the firm won Placement Agent of the Year Europe and Secondaries Adviser of the Year Europe at the Private Equity International Awards, and was also awarded Global Placement Agent of the Year by Infrastructure Investor.
